Kyiv 01030, Ukraine

To: the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is heard that the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine will hold elections for the President of the Academy on October 7, 2020. We, hereby, would like to express our support and expectation for Prof. Anatoly Zagorodny to be nominated.

Prof. Anatoly Zagorodny was granted Foreign Qilu Friendship Award by the Shandong Provincial government for his great contributions in promoting the scientific cooperation between Ukraine and China, especially between the Academy and Shandong province. With his support and efforts, the joint venture, between Institute for Safety Problems of Nuclear Power Plants NAS of Ukraine and Chinese non-governmental enterprise Xianchu Energy Development Group, was established, which has been the first of its kind. Since establishment, the JV has been widening and deepening its cooperation with various institutes of NAS of Ukraine.

Prof. Anatoly Zagorodny has been dedicated in physics, especially in plasma physics and condensed matter physics, and has gained remarkable achievements. Prof. Zagorodny has been serving as professional memberships in various heavy-weighted international scientific societies and academies. Prof. Zagorodny has been widely recognized and highly respected by the scientific communities within Ukraine and around the world. It will promote the credits and influence of the National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine in the world scientific communities, as well as facilitate the wide and deep international cooperation, to have venerable Prof. Anatoly Zagorodny to succeed prestige Prof. Borys PATON as President of the Academy.
